The General Data Protection Regulation 16/679

In this statement we have used certain terms which are set out in the EU's General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR or the Regulation):

personal data means: any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (data subject); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

controller means: the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.

processor means: a natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which processes personal data on behalf of the controller.

processing means: any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

What we do?

GBE brokers is a regulated online broker for private and institutional traders focussing on foreign exchange (FX) and CFD trading.

Our status under GDPR

Depending on the nature of the interaction, We may act as a processor in that We are acting upon instructions from controllers when We provide our services to them; and when We control the purposes and means of the processing of personal data, such as processing our employees' personal data, We act as a controller, as defined under GDPR

What lawful reasons do we use to process personal data?

The lawful reasons GBE brokers uses to process personal data are set out in Article 6 of the Regulation and with respect to the business model undertaken by GBE brokers, our processing is lawful given that at least one of the following applies:

- The data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes (Consent).
- Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract (Contract Performance).
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation which We are subject to (Legal Obligations).
- Processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by GBE brokers, except where our interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection of personal data, in particular where the data subject is a child (Legitimate Interest).

Consent

Where We process personal data as a result of data subject consent, We ensure that consent is freely given, specific and informed, and established by a clear affirmative act. Where consent is withdrawn, We have set out (below) how this may be undertaken.

Contract Performance

Where We enter into a contract, processing of personal data may, as a matter of course, be necessary in order to execute such contract or take pre-contract preparation steps.

Legal Obligations

Where We have legal obligations which apply to GBE brokers, processing of personal data may be required by law.

Legitimate Interest

Where We process personal data as it is necessary for the purpose of our legitimate interests, We do so on the basis of a balanced evaluation of our interests and the rights and freedoms of the data subject which require protection.

Presently, We have concluded that the way We manage the processing of personal data results in a cumulation of data subject protections which show that the balance is in favour of GBE brokers being able to rely on Article 6.1(f) of the Regulation as a lawful reason to process personal data.

Sensitive personal data

Where We process sensitive personal data, We do so on the basis that We have established a lawful exception to the prohibition on processing sensitive personal data under Article 9 of the Regulation; and where GBE brokers is processing sensitive personal data of employees, it does so pursuant to its employment relationship with its personnel and so uses the exception set out in paragraph 2(b) of Article 9 of the Regulation.
